Terms & Conditions of Sale

CONDITIONS OF THE SALE

The conditions set out in this document ('the Conditions') shall govern the terms of the contract ('the Contract') whereby Heatxforce Limited ('the Seller') agrees to sell goods or services ('the Goods') to the person ('the Buyer') who has ordered them to the exclusion of any other terms and conditions purported to be made by the Buyer.

All orders must be in writing and are accepted subject to these Terms and Conditions of Sale. No terms or condition put forward by Buyer and no representations, warranties, guarantees or other statement not constrained in Seller's quotation nor otherwise expressly agreed in writing by Seller shall be binding on Seller.

The contract shall become effective only upon the date of acceptance of Buyer's order by the Seller. Or upon the fulfilment of all conditions precedent stipulated in the contract whichever is the later.

Where the Buyer seeks in any way to alter the terms of a proposal or quotation he shall be deemed to propose a counter-offer which will then be conditional on its acceptance by the Seller.

No variation or alteration to these Conditions shall be deemed binding unless confirmed and agreed in writing between an authorised party of the Buyer and the Seller.

The Seller's employees or agents are not authorised to make any representations concerning the Goods unless confirmed by the Seller in writing. In entering into the Contract the Buyer acknowledges that it does not rely on and waives any claims for breach of any such representations which are not so confirmed.

Any advice or recommendation given by the Seller or its employees or Agents to the Buyer or its employees or agents as to the storage application or use of the Good which is not confirmed in writing by the Seller is followed or acted upon entirely at the Buyer's own risk and accordingly the Seller shall not be liable for any such advice or recommendation which is not so confirmed.

ORDERS AND SPECIFICATIONS

No order submitted by the Buyer shall be deemed to be accepted by the Seller unless and until confirmed in writing by the Seller's authorised representative.

The Buyer shall be responsible to the Seller for ensuring the completeness and accuracy of the terms of any order (including any applicable specification) submitted by the Buyer and for giving the Seller any necessary information relating to the Goods within sufficient time to enable the Seller to perform the Contract in accordance with its terms.

The description of the Goods contained in any quotation given by the Seller is believed to be correct as to weights, dimensions, quantity of items, capacity, performance, operation, procedure and otherwise. Any error, omission or misstatement found therein shall not affect the validity of the sale shall not entitle the Buyer to be discharged from the Contract or to claim any compensation in respect thereof.

Notwithstanding the Buyer shall not be obliged to accept any Goods which differ substantially in weight, dimension capacity, performance, operation, procedure and otherwise from the Goods agreed to be sold if the Buyer would be materially prejudiced by reason of such difference in which event the Buyer shall be entitled to rescind the Contract and to claim repayment of the price.

The Seller reserves the right to make any changes in the specification of Goods which are required to conform to any applicable safety or other statutory requirements.

No order which has been accepted by the Seller may be cancelled by the Buyer except with the agreement in writing of the Seller and on terms that the Buyer shall indemnify the Seller in full against all loss

(including loss of profit and the cost of all labour and materials used) damages charges and expenses incurred by the Seller as a result of cancellation.

PRICE AND TERMS OF PAYMENT

The price of the Goods shall be the Seller's quoted price and is based on the cost in sterling to the Seller of goods, materials, labour services and transport as at the date of the Contract. In the event that the date of despatch is more than six months after the date of the Contract and there shall be any material increases in such costs during such six month period which are due to any factor beyond the control of the Seller, the Seller shall be entitled to add to the price such sum as may be necessary to cover the amount of such increase.

Payment shall be made in net cash thirty days from the date of the Seller's invoice notwithstanding that delivery may not have taken place (otherwise than in consequence of a breach of contract or delay on the part of the Seller) or that the property in the Goods has not passed to the Buyer. The time of payment of the price shall be of the essence of the Contract.

If payment has not been made in full within the said period of thirty days the Seller reserves the right to charge interest (both before and after any judgement) on the amounts then outstanding (including interest payable under this provision) at the rate of 0.1% per day until payment in full is made.

If the Buyer fails to make any payment under this or any other contract for the sale of goods between the parties on the due date then without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to the Seller, the Seller shall be entitled to:-

- cancel the contract or suspend any further deliveries to the Buyer;
- appropriate any payment made by the Buyer to such of the Goods (or the goods supplied under any other contract between the Buyer and the Seller) as the Seller may think fit (notwithstanding any purported appropriation by the Buyer).

EXTRAS

If the Buyer shall subsequent to the date of the Contract require any additions, alterations or tests then the Seller shall be entitled to make an extra charge in respect thereof.

In the event of delays or suspension of work on the Buyer's instructions or resulting from the failure of the Buyer to give instructions the price shall be increased to cover any extra expense thereby incurred by the Seller.

STORAGE

If the Seller shall not receive delivery instructions within seven days of its notification to the Buyer that the Goods are ready for despatch there shall be added to the price a charge for storage and fire insurance from the expiration of such period of seven days until the date on which the Seller is instructed to despatch the Goods and during such periods the Goods shall be at the Buyer's risk (save for loss or damage by fire).

TESTS OR INSPECTION

If the Contract provides that a test or inspection of the Goods shall be made in the presence of the Buyer or its agent such tests shall take place at the Seller's works unless specifically agreed by the Seller at the expiration of not less than seven days written notice by the Seller to the Buyer and if the Buyer or its agent shall not duly attend at the appointed time such tests shall proceed in its absence but shall be deemed to have been made in its presence and the Seller's report thereof shall be accepted by the Buyer as a true and accurate account of such test.

DELIVERY

Any dates or times quoted for delivery of the Goods are approximate only and although the Seller shall use its best endeavours to despatch or provide within the stated time it shall not be liable for any delay in delivery of the Goods howsoever caused.

Unless otherwise stated the price covers delivery to the Buyer at the Seller's premises but does not include packing or transport charges. If required the Goods will be despatched in accordance with the Buyer's instructions and at its risk and cost.

Where it is provided by the Contract that the price includes delivery this shall be affected by such method of transit as the Seller may determine provided that the provisions of the Passing of Property and Risk clause applies.

PASSING OF PROPERTY AND RISK

The ownership of the Goods shall remain in the Seller until payment in full in cash or cleared funds has been made to the Seller for them.

The ownership of the Goods shall remain with the Seller until payment for all Goods whatsoever and whensoever supplied under this and all other Contracts between the parties has been received by the Seller in accordance with the terms of each such contract or until such time as the Buyer sells any such Goods to its customers by way of a bona fide sale in the ordinary course of business at full market value.

If such payment is overdue in whole or in part the Seller may (without prejudice to any of its other rights) recover or resell the whole or part of the Goods supplied under the Contract and may enter upon the Buyer's premises by its servants or agents for the purpose of recovering the goods. The Seller shall however account to the Buyer for any sum in excess of that required to discharge the total liability of the Buyer to the Seller under the Contract less all costs and fees incidental to and resulting from the exercise of the powers contained in this Clause.

Until such time as the property in the Goods passes to the Buyer, the Buyer shall hold the Goods as the Seller's fiduciary agent and Heatxforce Limited shall keep the Goods separate from those of the Buyer and third parties and properly stored, protected and insured and identified as the Seller's property. Until that time the Buyer shall be entitled to resell or use the Goods in the ordinary course of its business, but shall account to the Seller for the proceeds of sale or otherwise of the Goods, whether tangible or intangible including insurance proceeds, and shall keep all such proceeds separate from any moneys or property of the Buyer and third parties and, in the case of tangible proceeds, properly stored, protected and insured.

The Buyer shall not be entitled to pledge or in any way charge by way of security for any indebtedness any of the Goods which remain the property of the Seller.

The Goods shall be at the Buyer's risk immediately on delivery to the Buyer, on being appropriated to the Contract by being consigned to a carrier nominated by the Seller or requested by the Buyer (whichever shall first occur) or, in the case of Goods to be delivered at the Seller's premises, at the time when the Seller notifies the Buyer that the Goods are available for collection and on each such event the Buyer will insure the Goods for their full replacement value against all usual risks.

LIABILITY TO THE CUSTOMER

If any defect in the Goods appears under proper use and arising solely from faulty design, materials or workmanship attributable to the Seller within a period of twelve calendar months after the date of despatch, the liability of the Seller shall be limited to the repair or replacement of the Goods or the refund of the purchase price, at the discretion of the Seller.

Except where the Seller gives notice to the Buyer that it wishes to inspect any allegedly defective Goods at the premises of the Buyer the Seller shall be under no liability for defective unless the Goods are returned to the Seller without alteration or addition. In the event that the Seller acknowledges that the Goods are defective the Seller will refund any costs of delivery incurred by the Buyer in returning the Goods to the Seller.

The Seller shall be under no liability in respect of any defect arising from fair wear and tear, wilful damage, negligence, abnormal working conditions, (including damaged caused by corrosive or other destructive liquids unless the use giving rise to such damage has been specified by the Buyer and accepted by the Seller in writing), failure to follow the Seller's instructions for installation or use, misuse or alteration or repair of the Goods without the Seller's approval.

The Seller shall be under no liability in respect of defective parts, materials or equipment not manufactured by the Seller, in respect of which the Buyer shall only be entitled to the benefit of any such warranty or guarantee as is given by the manufacturer thereof to the Seller.

The seller does not guarantee that equipment it undertakes to repair, service or otherwise maintain or test can be successfully repaired, serviced or otherwise maintained or tested. The Seller shall be under no liability whatsoever in respect of such circumstances. In such circumstances the Seller shall invoice for the work carried out as originally quoted.
